Autumn Approaches

As autumn approaches, it's a good time to sit down and take stock of your finances: reassess your financial goals, see what damage summer has done to your finances and plan for upcoming winter expenses.

At Genistar, we are always here to help. We can assist you in reviewing your financial plan and we might even be able to help you find some extra money in there. Contact your Genistar rep today for more information.

Young People and Money

Do you have children off to university this autumn or maybe starting full-time employment for the first time? If so, you'll want to read our article about young people and money. Many young people learn little about finance during their formative years, and begin their adult life without the skills they need. In this article we lay out the basics that they need to know.

Genistar Family Fun Day

At Genistar, we believe in having fun. We work hard and we play hard...

That's why we have an annual Genistar Family Fun Day. Genistar reps, Field Support Centre employees and all our families and friends gather just to have fun... and eat, of course. This year we met in Regent's Park in central London. We shared lots of great food and built wonderful relationships. Why not join Genistar and become part of our ever-growing family?

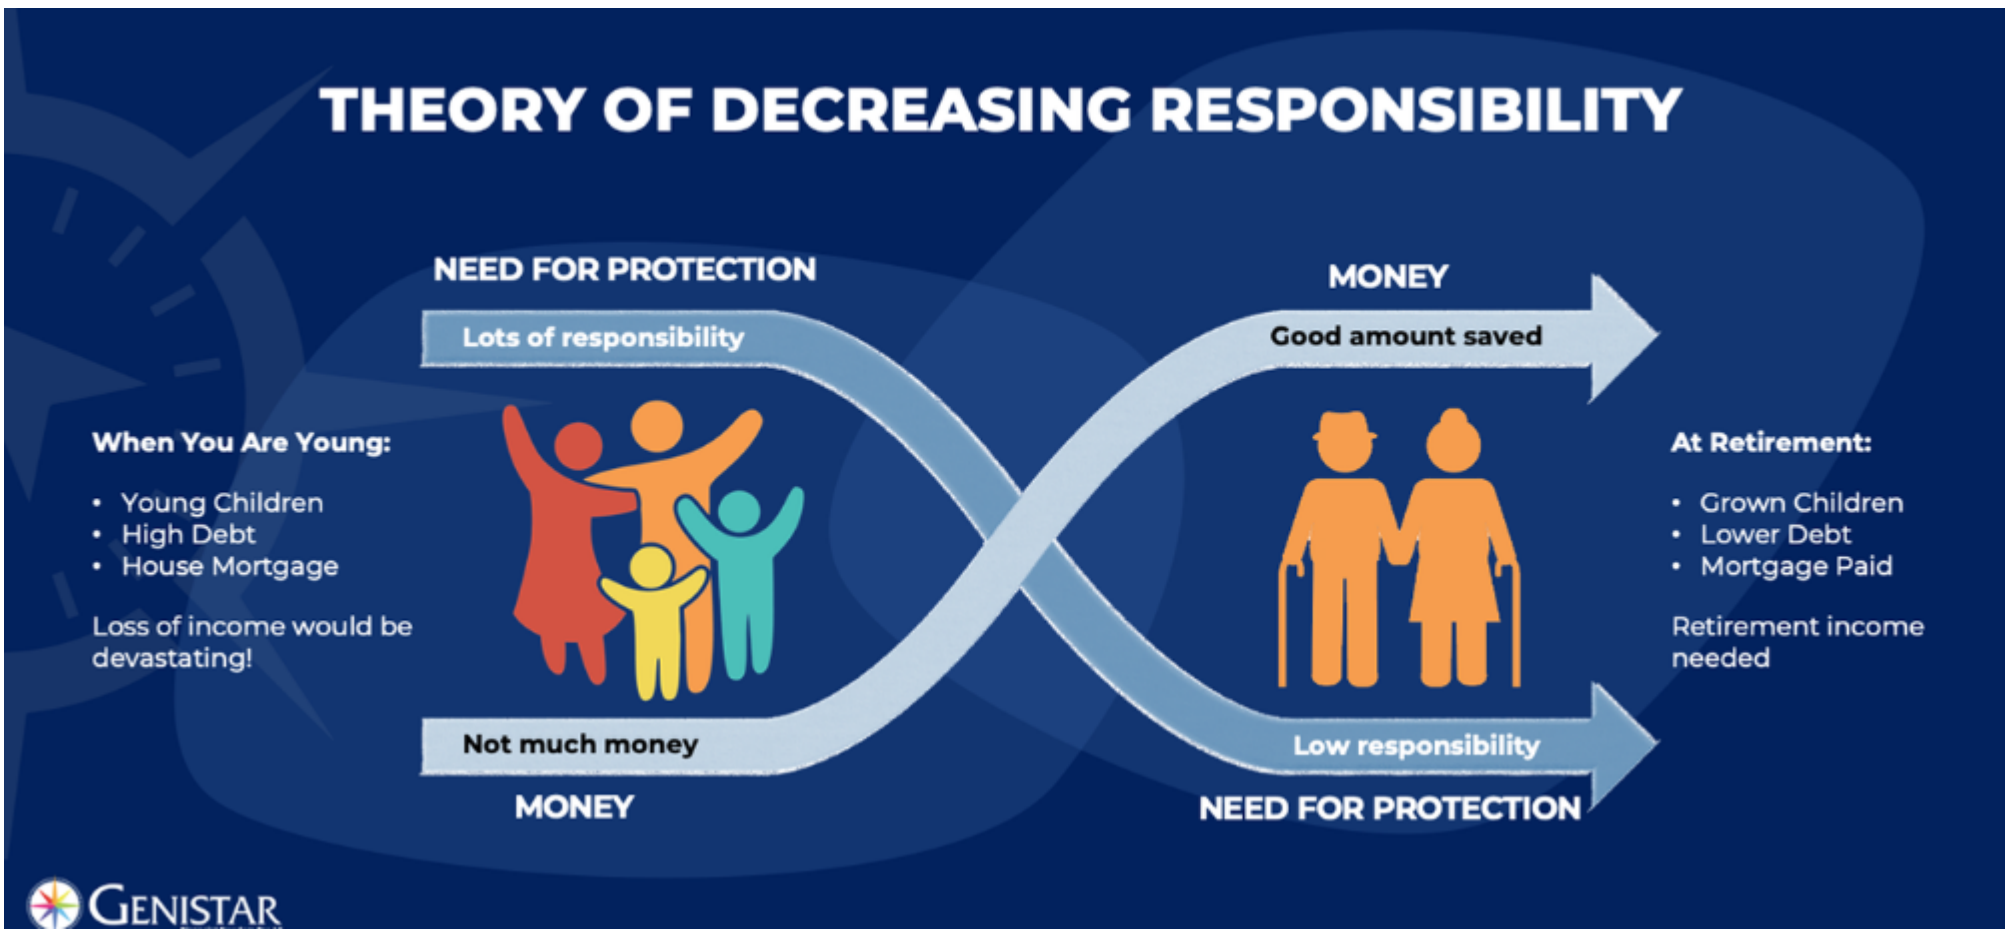

How Much Life Insurance Do You Need?

If you've ever wondered if you need life insurance or how much you might need, have a look at the Theory of Decreasing Responsibility. It illustrates how your life insurance needs may change as you progress through the different stages of your life.
