ARTICLES ABOUT WILLS

Wills

This month on the website, we are talking about Wills. A Will is something everyone needs but no one likes to think about. However, it makes life easier for those left behind if we plan ahead and get our affairs in order.

APS and Wills

That's why Genistar is proud of its partnership with APS Legal and Associates, one of the UK's largest and most reputable will writing and estate planning companies. APS have contributed two articles this month to get us thinking about Wills.

Why Should I Make a Will?

End-of-life planning is a topic which is all too easy to put off. Hopefully, this guide can help you approach the subject by explaining the many benefits of making a will...

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"I joined Genistar last year in May 2020 during the start of covid-19. I wanted something that I could do without leaving home and without putting my family in danger... So I decided to give Genistar a try. And to my surprise, I found out that most of the issues discussed were exactly where I needed help: credit card debt, loans, and many more financial problems that would not allow me to reach my goals and dreams.

So I followed the game plan that was given to me... April 2021, I finished paying off all my credit card debt. I was so happy when I cut up my credit card since I'm now debt free...

I just want to say a big thanks to all Genistar members for helping people like me to become debt free... I had tried several times to finish paying off my debt but was unsuccessful – interest kept accumulating. But with the system and the free plan given to me by Genistar, I was able to achieve my goals... Thanks for giving me another chance to wake up each morning knowing fully well that I'm debt free and without thinking of any credit card repayment at the end of each month. Thanks."
