Women in Genistar

At Genistar, one of our core values is inclusivity. We want to be a company where everyone can thrive. That's why we have recently launched two groups to support our female leaders. On Friday, 12 November, we launched Black Women in Genistar, and the next day, we launched Women in Genistar.

Inauguration of Black Women in Genistar

It began when a group of our Black women leaders decided to form a support group to address some of the issues related to their gender and colour. Then, being the kind and generous people they are, they organised the launch for all women in Genistar. The entire company (men and women) got behind the effort and supported our dynamic Genistar ladies.
