Friend – Father – Husband – Leader – Mentor

On 30 December 2021, our dear friend and colleague, Roger Davies, passed away. Roger was an amazing human being. He had a heart for serving others and made a positive impact on everyone he met and worked with. He was a peacemaker, an uplifter, and was always encouraging others. His presence will be sorely missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.

What people are saying...

Really interesting and super helpful

If you are on the fence about chatting to [Genistar] about your financial gamelan, don't be. I'm really not one for numbers. They make my head hurt and just don't interest me at all. I met [my Genistar rep] at a networking event and she offered to come over and have a chat with me. I was really sceptical about it and wondered what she was going to try and sell me.

But I needn't have been worried at all. We had a lovely chat, [My Genistar rep] took some numbers and put them into her laptop and explained how the banks and money work- I had no idea! I watched a quick video and that was that. [She] showed me how I'd be able to reduce my debt whilst paying less interest over a better time frame. [She] can also help you plan for your child's future and give you help with that. No hard sell, but if you need life insurance [she] is able to help sort this for you (which I highly recommend) So yea, from someone who is not interested in numbers or anything of this kind, I found it really interesting and super helpful.
