Spring is a season of fresh starts. Why not make this spring your Season of Becoming. Turn potential into progress, intention into action, and see the person you've been working toward begin to take shape.

In this issue we're focused on helping you step fully into that next version of yourself—personally and financially. You'll find powerful insights to help you build an unstoppable mindset, stay consistent when it matters most, and create real momentum in your journey.

Genistar Convention 2026 Was a Huge Success

This year's theme, "Unstoppable: Ordinary People, Extraordinary Mission," was truly brought to life. We were inspired by powerful stories from our field leaders along with incredible insights from our keynote speakers, Joe and Malisha Ward and Susannah Schofield.

Our impactful panel discussions highlighted the real difference we're making in people's lives, the rise of the next generation, and the exciting future of Genistar. We also celebrated outstanding achievements from the previous year while casting the vision for a transformational – and truly unstoppable – year ahead.

More than anything, Convention 2026 was a reminder that becoming unstoppable is a journey—one that begins with ordinary people choosing to step into something greater.
